What we offer

SECURITY SERVICES FOR YOUR BUSINESS

Mobile Patrol

Safeguard your premises and deter theft, property damage and loitering around your business with our mobile patrol services. Adding mobile patrol guards to your security camera and alarm system is an excellent way to keep your premises safe, and they offer a cost-effective alternative to manned and static security solutions.

All our mobile security guards are SIA licensed, insured and trained to tackle any security situation, including when things get rough. If an issue does arise, you can rest assured that our mobile patrol security services personnel are trained to the highest standard to deal with the problem swiftly and efficiently.

Our mobile guards will visit your premises at agreed frequencies and always show up in full uniform and marked patrol vehicles to provide a visible security presence.

Licensed Dog Handler

We provide best in class canine security services using highly-trained K9s and licensed dog handlers. Our professional handlers and canines have years of experience under their belt and can provide the highest quality of security protection for private clients and businesses. All our dog handlers have NTIPDU certifications, and our security dogs are fully trained to provide personal and property security protection.

The presence of our canines and licensed dog handlers will send a clear message to potential intruders that you don't take security for granted.

What we offer

SECURITY SERVICES FOR YOUR BUSINESS

Key Holding & Alarm Response

Spare your staff the stress and risk of responding to late-night call outs and emergencies with our key holding services. We provide reliable, trusted, and hassle-free key holding services that give our residential and commercial clients peace of mind that their property is safe and secured. All our personnel are SIA-approved security officers trained to respond to out-of-hours call-outs, emergencies, and alarm activations, which are often inconvenient and sometimes potentially dangerous.

We use a Key Safe System to secure your keys and ensure only authorised security officers can access them. Our control room is operational 24/7 and 365 days a year and we are always available to be on your site in the shortest time possible. Besides holding your keys securely on your behalf, we can also help you attend to alarm activations, respond to emergencies, allow maintenance tradesmen and your employees to access your building, and more.
